1. Title of the Practice: Participation in Gandhi thoughts rite examination
2. Objectives of the Practice:
 - To reach mahatma Gandhi’s values i.e. truth, non-violence, sympathy, honesty and his work to the students
 - To prevent increasing violence and cruelty in society throughout Gandhi’s thoughts and to create peace in society.
3. The Context: Gandhi Research Foundation (GRF) launched Gandhi Vichar Sanskar Pariksha (GVSP), an examination on Gandhian ideologies, it was purely on a trial basis. For two years prior to the launch of GVSP, the GRF team visited each and every school and college in various district of Maharashtra to convince officials regarding the exam. In 2007, the exam was attempted by 3,876 students at various schools and colleges. There was a common syllabus, just one book called Sankshipt Atmakatha, a small autobiography written by Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi. The positive response inspired GRF to take the exam in various district in 2008. Last year, 79,741 students from 961 schools and colleges across the state as well as Belgaum district in Karnataka wrote GVSP. 2nd October is celebrated as a birthday of Mahatma Gandhi all over India. It's declared as a non-violence day by UNESCO. 2018-19 is his 150th birthday year. In this year exam is to focus Gandhi's thoughts for spreading in the students and to demolish recent creating violence and to create love and affection for society and country. Our college actively participated in this exam from 2016. In academic year 2018-19, 45 students of our college were participated in this exam. Through this exam students were motivated by Gandhi's thoughts.
